

Ronald G. Bowser, CPA

“I put my clients first and provide professional support for their tax and accounting needs. By listening to what they want to achieve in their business and personal lives, I assist them in reaching their goals.”

Ronald G. Bowser, CPA has extensive experience in Tax and Estate planning, tax law compliance, tax preparation, compilations, reviews, and quality control under the umbrella of management control.

With over 40 years experience in the public accounting field, Ron has performed audits of public and private hospitals, managed and supervised audits of construction contractors and small cities, and represented clients during tax audits by governmental agencies. Additionally, he has compiled client data and prepared various financial statements and reports. He was previously a shareholder of a public accounting firm in Monterey County, CA.

Quality Currently a member of the Steering Committee at Yoder & Company, Ron has concentrated knowledge of the healthcare, construction, real estate, and retail industries. He has supervised tax engagements and prepared tax returns including estate, and income tax returns of individuals, corporations, partnerships and fiduciaries. Ron has done extensive tax and estate planning for individuals, and tax planning for businesses and fiduciaries.

Integrity Small businesses rely on his advisory services. His management responsibilities include developing, implementing, and maintaining Quality Control Standards and Procedures for public accounting firms and interfacing with the Peer Review teams required by the accounting profession.

Service Ron holds a Bachelor of Science in accounting from Golden Gate University in Monterey, CA. His professional affiliations include the California Society of Certified Public Accountants (CSCPA).

.
345I Longview Drive, Suite 140 | Sacramento | CA 95821-7104
[916] 488-5900 voice | [916] 481-5227 fax | www.yodercpa.com